Report of County Solicitor

TO THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS:

During the year of 1928 there were returned five indictments, one for assault with intent to kill, one for abuse of female child, one for larceny, one for forgery, and one for sale of intoxicating liquor.

The assault with intent to kill case was continued to the May Term 1929, the abuse of female child case was disposed of by a House of Correction sentence suspended, as was the larceny case, the forgery case was disposed of by a State Prison sentence suspended, and charge of keeping for sale intoxicating liquor was disposed of by the imposition of a fine and costs.

The County has been free from any considerable violation of law. Many cases formerly prosecuted in the Superior Court are now handled in the several municipal courts and thus violations of law are promptly dealt with.

Our Sheriffs have been diligent in their effort to suppress the illegal sale of liquor and are to be commended for their zealous services.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. BRITTON.
